

Hazelbeck School

Permissions information

Parents/carers will be asked to indicate preferences for the permissions shown below via their child's School Admission form.

You have the right to withdraw your option at any point by contacting campusadminteam@beckfoot.org

I give permission for my child to be involved in swimming/Hydro
I give permission for my child to be involved in Aromatherapy Activities
I give permission for my child to be involved in Rebound
I give permission for my child to be involved in Personal, Social and Health Education (PSHE) involving personal care such as showering, hair-washing and nail cutting.
I give permission for my child to be taught Sex and Relationships Education (SRE). * Note: parents can withdraw their child from SRE but not the statutory programmes of study for other aspects of PSHE or reproduction in science. When SRE is being taught to your child's class a separate letter will be sent home reminding you of your rights to withdraw your child from only this aspect.
I give permission for my child to be involved in everyday off-site visits associated with the curriculum (e.g. shopping activities, visits to local places of worship, visits to museums). I understand that to comply with school insurance requirements my child should be fit to travel and capable of taking part in the activities described above and I understand that I must notify the school of any changes to medical conditions or recent injuries prior to a trip/activity. * Note: visits involving an extended day will require a separate permission request.
I give permission for my child to be cared for in the event of an accident, including the administration of first aid by a qualified first aider, or transfer to hospital if this is required.

Photographs are taken of students for use on necessary school systems and for cashless catering and identification purposes e.g. swipe cards. Occasionally photographs may also be taken of students during school activities. Please confirm that you give permission for photographs to be taken and used as follows:
